About Kanka
April 8th, 2019 – About Kanka was born out of the desire of two passionate RPG players to build and manage a world together in the summer of 2017. After trying out a few available options at the time and concluding that none of them fit quite the way we wanted we set out to build our own tool during the fall of 2017.

Nutch User Nutch 2.3.1 Fetch Phase Only 2 Reducers
April 5th, 2019 – Hello I'm working with Nutch 2.3.1 with HBase for the webpage table. I have all the phases inject, generate, fetch, parse and updatedb working fine. Nutch is a crawling beast. On our cluster the generate phase uses around 60 mappers and 128 reducers but the fetch phase always uses just 2 reducers. In a recent test the fetch phase used 60 mappers and 2 reducers.
