The bond of love is a story by Kenneth Anderson. It's a story which raises a question if there can be true bond of love between human beings and wild animals. It's a story of the deep bond of love between his family and a pet sloth bear named Bruno. The bond of love, Kenneth Anderson was born in Bolarum and came from a British family that settled in India for six generations. His father, Aryan Stewart Anderson, was superintendent of the F.C.M.A in Poona, Maharashtra, and dealt with the salaries paid to military personnel having an honorary rank of captain. Dr. Kenneth F. Anderson, MD of West Brandywine, Kenneth Anderson, 88, formerly of Paoli, died Wednesday, February 1, 2017, surrounded by his family. He was the beloved husband of Janet Anderson, with whom he shared 60 years of marriage. Born in Hanover, New Hampshire, he was the son of the late Troyer Anderson and Mary, Notemonk is an exciting new way to experience books.
