Students will know the best strategy to answer all the questions in the Cambridge English Advanced CAE C1 Advanced certificate speaking paper. What you need to know about the Cambridge Advanced Speaking Test. The CAE speaking test has 4 parts and lasts 15 minutes. About 23 minutes for a group of 3. You will take the test with another candidate, and both you and your partner will be given an equal opportunity to speak. CAE speaking test part 4 takes the topic from part 3 and extends it. While the CAE speaking test part 3 is quite structured, you have more freedom in part 4. You can answer questions in a more natural way, like you would in everyday conversation. However, there are some strategies to keep in mind, and the questions can be quite challenging.

When you take a speaking exam like CAE, it's not just about English. It's about your ideas and opinions and how well you can communicate them to others. This is a more general tip, but reading widely, keeping up with the news, and thinking about current affairs can help you in your CAE speaking exam. What to do in CAE speaking part 1. Answering the questions as best you can is the key here. While a candidate can often feel a little nervous at the start of a CAE speaking test, the questions give you an opportunity to respond to topics that are familiar.

In part 1 of the speaking paper, it's typical for candidates to be asked about their goals and aspirations. Give out the sheet and have students ask and answer the typical questions. Then have them test each other on the expressions. The CAE speaking test is designed to offer candidates the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to use their spoken language skills effectively in a range of contexts. The test takes about 15 minutes for a pair of candidates. One examiner, the interlocutor, conducts the test and gives a global assessment of each candidate's performance. The CAE speaking test consists of 4 parts and lasts for 15 minutes. The exam is usually administered in pairs, meaning that you will have a speaking partner a test taker just like you. You are assessed by two CAE representatives: one interviewer and one observer. There are four speaking assessment criteria, each making up to 25%.
