The Chartered Alternative Investment Association (CAIA) is the leader in the alternative investment education space. It has recently announced a pilot program jointly developed with CFA Institute to allow candidates to stack their acquired knowledge and credentials allowing them to skip CAIA Level I and move directly to Level II of their CAIA exam. Kaplan Inc. is a for-profit corporation that provides educational services to colleges and universities and businesses.

Kaplan was founded in 1938 by Stanley Kaplan and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Graham. I used Kaplan Schweser for the CFA exam and the CAIA exam. Outside of the practice exams provided by each organization, Kaplan was the only tool I used in passing all levels of the CFA exam and the CAIA exam on the first try. William J., CFA, CAIA, Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst, is a professional designation offered by the CAIA Association to investment professionals who complete a course of study and pass two examinations. The CAIA designation is characterized as dealing with asset classes and investments other than standard equity or fixed income products.

Kaplan Schweser is the leading global provider of financial education for hundreds of thousands of students and business professionals around the world. The experts at Schweser provide top-quality instruction and study materials. The complete beginner's guide to the CAIA exams is available on the Schweser website.

CAIA vs CFA Competing or Complementary Which is Better
April 15th, 2019 - CAIA was established in 2002 and currently has 6,700 members. The CFA program offers a comprehensive educational program on traditional investments while CAIA focuses on alternative investments. Because of this, the CFA program is more "static" i.e., little change from year to year because of its emphasis on traditional fundamentals.
