The Borough of Manhattan Community College (BMCC) is one of the seven two-year colleges within the City University of New York (CUNY) system. Founded in 1963, BMCC originally offered business-oriented and liberal arts degrees for those intending to enter the business world or transfer to a four-year college. Its original campus was scattered all over Midtown Manhattan utilizing office buildings.

BMCC is CUNY's largest community college with 22,500 undergraduate and 10,000 continuing education students and is also its only one in Manhattan. The organization is committed to providing affordable, culturally relevant, accessible, and high-quality educational opportunities to all. The campus includes a fine arts center with approximately 150 classrooms and computer lab spaces, a public café, library, music ensemble rooms, and a rooftop conference center.

BMCC’s Jazz Ensemble performs live on national radio show at WBGO. Performing on WBGO is the equivalent of playing at a legendary jazz club such as New York City’s Blue Note, Village Vanguard, or Birdland. The mission of the Borough of Manhattan Community College Academic Advisement & Transfer Center is to assist students in the development of meaningful educational plans that will further their academic career and personal goals.
